PUSHING AHEAD

New Thrust Carries Haig's Forces Close Up to Third Line Trenches—French Break Up German Attempt at Verdun By Shell Fire—Belgians Win Success in Africa.

(Associated Press Cable)

London, July 18.—Following up their successes near Bazentin-le-Petit and Longueval, where they have driven close to the third line of German defense on the Albert Plateau, the British now have carried out a new thrust forward north of Ovillers, making substantial progress along a front of more than half a mile.

The British drive was launched near the left flank of the line active in the present offensive southeast of Thiepval, and if followed up seems likely to threaten seriously the strongly held German positions at Pozieres, to the east.

The expected counter attacks of the Germans in efforts to recapture ground recently won by the Allies in the Somme offensive have materialized along the front occupied by the French south of the Somme.

In an attack last night on the lines between Maisonette and Braches, the Germans succeeded in regaining territory along the canal east of Blaches.

Their assault on Maisonette itself, a costly operation, was a failure, says today's Paris bulletin.

In the Verdun region there has been further activity.

The French fire broke up a German raid on Hill 304, west of the Meuse, while grenade fighting on the eastern bank of the river resulted in advantage to the French, according to the Paris report.

Belgian troops have won an important success in German East Africa, dispersing a German force near Lake Victoria and reaching at two points the shore of the lake in the northern part of the colony.

COMMISSION
BEING FORMED

Mexican Ambassador Engaged in Choosing Members.

Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, July 18.—Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate, called on Acting Secretary Polk at the State Department today.

It is understood that Ambassador Arredondo has received instructions from his government approving a tentative plan for the settlement of differences with the United States by means of a joint international commission.

There are indications that Henry P. Fletcher, Ambassador designate to Mexico, will head the three American commissioners if the plan is adopted.

Mr. Fletcher was present at today's conference.

The commission plan was developed during preliminary conversations between Mr. Polk and Mr. Arredondo.

It is expected that further informal conferences will be held to define the scope of the proposed commission.

APPEAL DENIED TO CASEMENT

Higher Court on Statement of Sir Rogers' Attorneys Dismisses His Case.

(Associated Press Cable)

London, July 18.—Without hearing attorneys for the Crown, the Court of Criminal Appeal today dismissed Sir Roger Casement's appeal from the verdict of the lower court, which found him guilty of treason, and for which he has been sentenced to death.

A further appeal to the House of Lords is possible only through special dispensation from the Crown, if the Attorney General gives a certificate that the decision of the Court of Appeal involves a point of law so exceptionally important that it is desirable in the public interest to hear an appeal.

Powerful influences are working for a reprieve, and Casement's friends have strong hope of one being granted.

DEATH LIST OF BIG STORM

Nineteen Dead and Thirteen Missing Is Now the Estimate of Casualties.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Atlanta, Ga., July 18.—The death list from high waters from five southern states today stood at nineteen, with 13 or more missing. The property loss was put at $15,000,000.

Rescue parties searching the swollen Catawba River all night near Belmont, N. C., for ten construction men who went down with the Southern Railroad bridge were unsuccessful.

Ten others were taken from tree-tops late yesterday, but the missing men are believed to have been drowned.

Greatly improved conditions are reported in Virginia and West Virginia. Streams are falling and normal conditions are being restored.

Automobiles are being used to remove the 250 passengers from the Florida Special of the Southern Railway at Asheville, which is water bound.

MEXICAN REVOLVER CANNON

Inspector Hunter Finishes Work at Camp Willis—Compliments Men.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Camp Willis, July 18.—Colonel George K. Hunter, Inspector General of the Central Department of the Army, finished his inspection of Camp Willis at noon today and soon afterwards left for Grayling, Michigan.

His inspection there will complete his examination of all mobilization camps in his department.

"You have a fine looking lot of soldiers here. They do not know everything that there is to know about army service, but they are a bright, healthy lot of fellows, and are learning and will continue to learn just as readily as any men you will find any place," was General Hunter's comment to Colonel McMaken, camp commander.

Colonel Hunter will give an official account of what he observed at Camp Willis to the commander of the Central Department in Chicago.

His report is held confidential. General John C. Speaks, commander of the Second Brigade, declared today that not a single "kick" was registered by any company cook whose quarters were visited by the inspector.

The Villistas apparently are making for Tepic, about 120 miles south of Parral, where it is expected they will make a stand.

General Elizondo reports that Villa forces in the Benito Juarez section of Chihuahua State have been wiped out by troops of the de facto Government. Seven Villistas were executed.

RUSSIAN REPULSE

(By Associated Press Cable)

Berlin, July 18.—The complete repulse of Russian attacks in the region west and southwest of Lutsk was announced today by the war office.

After three charges of dynamite had been exploded and an attempt made to fire the structure with gasoline, McIntyre and his wife, who were armed with powerful rifles, were shot to death.

The police were held at bay for more than an hour. The explosions blew the rear porch and part of the kitchen into the alley, and when the police were able to enter the building it was wrecked.

They found an explanation of McIntyre's deed in a note, which he left, scrawled in lead pencil on a soiled piece of wrapping paper.

"The Almighty God has made me a prophet unto all nations and also my wife, Hattie McIntyre. You shall know that the Lord has sent me to gather unto the Lord the remnants of the Adamic seed."

At this place in the scrawl the negro wrote three capital C's and the initials "P. H."

"I must die in this land, that I may carry my report unto Almighty God concerning the land of the United States."

In the opinion of the police, McIntyre wrote the letter just before becoming violent, although he had opportunity to do so during lull while the bluecoats were under cover.

The dead are Stuart Dean, 60, policeman; Mrs. Josephine Overmyer, 28, white; Edward Knox, 34, negro; Alfred Matthews, 30, negro, and McIntyre and his wife, each 30 years old.

The injured are Edward Clement, detective sergeant, three bullet wounds (serious); Grover Crabtree, policeman, wounded wrist and elbow; Mrs. Sadie Knox, wife of Edward Knox, bullet wound in back (serious).

McIntyre's wife is supposed to have assisted him, at least to the extent of reloading their weapons, as a cartridge belt was found around her waist similar to the one worn by her husband. Her head was blown off by the explosions of dynamite.

The negro first attracted attention with his shouts about 3:15 in the morning, and at 5 o'clock the neighbors became so alarmed that they called the police.

Policeman Dean was killed as he broke down the rear door. Clement and Crabtree were shot when they entered to recover Dean's body.

Mrs. Overmyer was slain when she went in search of her husband, who had gone to investigate the shooting. The crazed negro killed Knox as he stepped on the porch of his home.

McIntyre, although desperately wounded after the dynamite had been exploded, was found leaning against a door. He carried a revolver and a rifle.

Before he could fire, a bullet from a policeman's revolver found its mark in his head. He died on the way to the hospital.

The negro had pitched the bodies of two of his victims out of a window to the front porch, where they lay in full view until McIntyre was killed.

LAND OF GOLD NO LONGER

BONANZA FOR LONE MINER

Interesting Information Is Given By Mr. Milton Barrere Concerning His Stay in Alaska and the Dreary Life Within the Arctic Circle—Expects to Go to Border, Where Climate Is 194 Degrees Warmer Than Coldest Alaska.

"It goes good to be back in Washington once more, but I certainly miss the sweet, pure, healthful air of the far north, and within two or three weeks expect to be in still worse air on the Mexican border", said Mr. Milton Barrere, Jr., who arrived in this city a few days ago after traveling several thousand miles from within the Arctic Circle where the midnight sun, intense cold and the mysterious and fascinating "northern lights" are constant companions.

Mr. Barrere had been away from this city for four years, two years of which he spent in the United States Radio service in far off Alaska, and about as far north in Alaska as one could go, or at least would care to go, and there—far away from any habitation other than the small trading post in which he was located, pick from space and hurl through the heavens the magic dots and dashes of intelligence.

Part of the time he was in Alaska Mr. Barrere was quartered at Tanana, a short distance south of the Arctic Circle, and the remainder of the time he was at a post some 12 miles north of the Arctic Circle and where the mercury registered as low as 74 degrees below zero, and where, during fourteen consecutive days last March the mercury hovered between 30 and 50 degrees below zero.

But regardless of the intense cold, according to Mr. Barrere, the air is so dry that the low registerings of the thermometers are felt little more than in this climate where the air is damp. In fact Mr. Barrere, caught out several hundred miles from a trading post or mining camp, was forced to sleep upon a pile of fir branches and wrapped in a robe while the thermometer hovered about 30 below zero, and he suffered no great discomforts.

Mr. Barrere's trip from the northern part of Alaska down to Skagway was slow but interesting. Whenever possible he made the trip by boat on the rivers, and part of the journey was made by sledges.

And while Alaska is a wonderful country, he is not anxious to return there for any length of time because it is, to a very great extent, a pioneer country where "rough and ready" still predominate.

The average fortune seeker never makes his "stake" in Alaska, and while it is impossible to dig anywhere in the former domain of the Czar with out striking traces of gold, the precious metal does not exist in quantities that would pay a prospector to mine it in the old way. Even placer mining is all but abandoned in most parts of the country, and like the western part of the United States, among the ribs of the Rockies where the "Forty-Niners" coaxed the yellow metal from the mountains, it has remained for the big corporations to step in and establish gigantic plants to wrest from the clutching quartz the small particles of the precious metal.

Several of these big concerns are now at work in Alaska where they have set to work on entire mountains of low grade ore which gives up about $19 of gold to the ton. The gold diggers in Alaska today must to succeed, be backed by millions and equipped with a mammoth plant for extracting the flakes from the rock.

However, in a few instances, large nuggets have been picked up within the past year or two, but these instances are infrequent. Alaska abounds in other minerals also.

The Yukon river is a mighty stream and Mr. Barrere states that the ice over the river when it gives way with the spring thaw, is from 7 to 10 feet in thickness, and the river, ordinarily one mile wide spreads out so that in one place it is 60 miles wide.

Mr. Barrere was not only an operator of the Government wireless plant far up toward the apex of the earth, but also operated the wire telegraph when the wireless failed. However he found, for the first time that because of the mystic aurora borealis and magnetic or static influence near the pole that the wireless would work almost perfectly when the static influence had the wire telegraphy out of commission.

Part of the time he was quartered in the northern part of Alaska the sun was visible only a very short time out of the twenty-four hours and appeared just above the southern horizon for a brief period.

The wonderful aurora borealis played about the heavens in the most startling, wonderful and fantastic manner, and the rays were of all the colors in the rainbow. At times these mystic rays waved about in the heavens like a monster flag, and within a few minutes the phenomenon would disappear and a moment later gigantic fan-shaped rays would sweep across the heavens. Mr. Barrere never wearied of watching these wonderful lights.

The four years have wrought many changes in Washington which immediately attracted his attention. He finds all of the changes for the better and is pleased that the city has shown such a burst of enterprise.

The paving and the erection of new buildings proved an agreeable surprise to him.

Mr. Barrere is still in the government service and expects to be on duty in one of the Radio stations on the Mexican border within a very short time, and he expects some discomforts due to the change from 74 below zero in the Arctic Circle to 120 degrees on the Mexican border, and points to the difference of approximately 194 degrees as reason why he naturally will suffer from the vast difference in the temperature.

Meanwhile he is taking a much needed rest while at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton M. Barrere, in this city.

Conditions and Consequences

Washington people regret exceedingly that the record of the city has been again blotted with a "killing."

Whether the act which resulted in the taking of a human life last Saturday evening was murder or justifiable homicide is for the courts to determine.

That one of the unfortunate participants in the Saturday night tragedy was grievously at fault is a certainty which needs no adjudication of any court.

The crisis which resulted in the tragedy was as certain to follow the existence of conditions in this city as night is certain to follow day.

The congregating places which have sprung up in Washington during the last year and been allowed to grow and thrive, unmolested, must, sooner or later, produce their harvest of disgrace and tragedy.

The scythe of the law should be swung vigorously by those officials, into whose hands it has been placed, until the poisonous weeds which so disturb the wholesome growth of organized society, are eradicated.

When the bad elements of any community gather, day after day and night after night, in groups and crowds at established places it may be set down as certain that the only magnet which attracts that element is at work.

We all understand that, that which satisfies the ordinary citizens is not evidence sufficient to satisfy courts but we understand also that it is the duty of officials to up root such places and obtain the necessary evidence. Unable to do that constant surveillance can render the places unattractive.

Washington must act—there is no excuse for ignoring conditions that have been permitted to run riot too long already.

Villa Again Heads "Army."

Judging from the reported activities of the Mexican bandits, credit for which is given to one Villa who leads now in person a collection of nondescript outlaws largely augmented during the last week, the spectacular villian who planned and executed the Columbus, New Mexico raid, is very much alive and in the full enjoyment of all the vigor of his robust physique and devilish cunning.

With the unfounded reports of Villa's death and serious injury, then, also vanishes in the thin vapor of groundless speculation, the tales of his return to the patriot flock under Carranza's leadership and the granting of immunity, for past offenses, by the first chief.

Villa, with his outlaw band, is reported to have cut General Trevino's line of communication and is believed to be on his way to attack Chihuahua City.

All of which points unmistakably to the fact that General Pershing's command is very much needed in northern Mexico and that Carranza's grandiloquent assertions of his ability to maintain order are nothing more than the fulminations of a weak egotist.

Carranza will do well if he keeps himself and his tottering government out of the clutches of the bandits. If he has any common sense he will welcome the presence of the punitive expedition and if he makes any request at all of this government, will ask that the United States forces in Mexico be increased measurably.

The Joke Is On U's

The folks who, this spring, when the weather was wet and cold, delaying so long the planting of the corn crop, prophesied a duplicate of last summer for this year—cold and exceedingly wet—have been compelled to seek cover during the last weeks of June and the first half of July.

Never has more ideal weather prevailed at the harvest time than this season has witnessed.

Work in the hay fields and wheat fields and now the work of threshing out the harvested grain has gone uninterrupted forward so far as any unfavorable weather conditions are concerned.

Never has the weather at haying time been surpassed in this section. The luxuriant grass which the cool rains of spring produced, severed from the earth has "cured" in the hot sun and strong breezes in a few hours time. The waving grass of many meadows has been safely stored in mow or stack by the thrifty farmers, ready for the day when the price is "right."

The corn which the farmers were so late in planting has been making up the lost time at a rate which furnishes every reasonable assurance that it will be out of danger before frost comes.

No wonder the man in the radiant moon, way up in the southern sky, last Friday night, winked, very noticeably, and with the wink concluded, smiling broadly, beamed down upon contented men. He had a wink coming, also a smile, and then hereabouts were glad that the joke was on them.

Poetry For Today

ONLY A DAD.

Only a dad, with a tired face
Coming home from the daily race,
Bringing little of gold or fame
To show how well he has played the game,
But glad in his heart that his own
rejoice
To see him come and to hear his voice.

Only a dad of a brood of four,
One of ten million men or more,
Plodding along in the daily strife,
Bearing the whips and scorns of life
With never a whimper of pain or hate,
For the sake of those who at home await.

Only a dad, neither rich nor proud,
Merely one of the surging crowd,
Tolling, striving from day to day,
Facing whatever may come his way;
Silent, whenever the harsh condemn,
And bearing it for the love of them.

Only a dad, but he gives his all
To smooth the way for his children small,
Doing, with courage stern and grim,
The deeds that his father did for him;
This is the line that for him I pen,
Only a dad, but the best of men.

YOUTHFUL SNAKE HUNTERS.

Boys Handle Dangerous Reptiles Like Professional Charmers.

Galena, Kan.—Two small boys, Willie and Robert Short, the elder of whom is about fourteen, have produced a new sensation in the vicinity of their home at Five Mile, where they have a cage full of writhing snakes of many varieties. They play with these reptiles without the least sign of fear, going through with all the stunts of professional snake charmers.

The collection consists of black snakes, blue racers, chicken snakes and three ugly looking rattlers. On Saturdays they usually go to Snake branch and hunt for more reptiles. However, these new reptiles are not placed with their "pets," but kept in a separate cage, and are usually shipped to owners of small shows and museums, from whom they get from $3 to $5 for each reptile.

Neither of the boys has ever been bitten. The older boy gave a lecture on snakes before the pupils of the Shoal Creek school. He surprised teacher and pupils alike by his classification of reptiles, giving their Latin names and discussing the harmless or dangerous varieties, taking each from a box as he explained their varied habits.

Centralia, Kan.—An ox shoe has been unearthed in the J. P. Dorman garden. It had probably laid there for fifty years. Miss Dorman, who is a primary teacher, used the shoe to illustrate stories to the children of the early days in Kansas, when people rode behind oxen instead of in automobiles.

TELLS THE TIME BY HIS FAMILY'S FACES

He Is 1 o'Clock, His Wife Is 2, and Children Go According to Age.

St. Joseph, Mo.—The flight of the hours are marked on the dial of C. W. Humbert's watch by the faces of his ten children and by his own face and the face of his wife. Tiny photographs are set in the dial in place of the Roman numerals. Every time Mr. Humbert—who is a grading contractor here—looks at the time he sees his whole family.

He is 1 o'clock and his wife is 2. The children are arranged in the order of their birth, beginning at 3 o'clock with Carl, who is thirty-four, and continuing through Calvin, Albert, Bertha, Glen, George, Eva, Robert, Vernon and little 12 o'clock Edith, who is three and the youngest of the family. The watch was made especially for Mr. Humbert a few years ago and he is so used to it that he can tell the exact time at a glance. He arises at Albert o'clock in the morning, has luncheon at half-past Edith and is usually home by Bertha.

If he refers to the watch a score of times throughout the day he is reminded each time of his loved ones and there is little chance that he will ever forget his family in the rush of business. The idea of putting the family in the watch occurred to him as a sentimental novelty, unlike anything he had ever heard of. His work as a grading contractor carries him out of town frequently, but he reports he is not so lonely as he used to be, since he feels that he can take a glimpse at his youngsters any time he cares to without attracting outside attention.

STREET LIGHTING BID IS REJECTED BY CITY SOLONS

New Plan of Lighting Will Be Submitted—"Heated" Session Is Held—Several Matters of Business Get Attention, But Another Call for Bids for Flushing Is Ordered.

Council had a heated session Monday night, and some of the visitors pronounced it the hottest session they had ever attended. However, it was the weather and not the anger of the solons that made it a heated session, and the solons expended much energy in wailing fans which had been sent up by the P. & D. Bank.

More time was granted the committee on the new street from Milikan avenue to Dayton avenue.

The bid of the Washington Gas & Electric Company for street lighting was rejected on the ground that it was several thousand dollars in excess of what the city can afford to pay for lights.

Upon the request of the manager of the company, council asked for new plans for a lighting system, and this is to be furnished by the next regular meeting.

By unanimous vote council rejected the proposed ordinance for employment of ten special police to be paid from costs collected in cases where arrests were made.

A resolution was adopted providing that the motor truck shall not be used for purposes other than fire fighting or fire drills. This will eliminate pumping out water mains or pools.

Howell Protests.

A resolution authorizing the transfer of $200 from the General to the Health fund, was adopted. Howell and Sheets voting against the proposal. Howell stated that he questioned the advisability of transferring such an amount, and that he protested against one man being paid by the Board of Health for treating contagious diseases; that the Board of Health had no right to take such action, and that it was time to get rid of pets in the matter.

Annual Budget.

The annual budget resolution was adopted, providing $4500 in the General fund; $8800 in Safety; $27,500 in Public Service; $1500 in Library; $800 in Health and $28,086 in the interest and sinking fund; a total of $71,186.

The semi-annual appropriation ordinance also was passed without a dissenting voice.

A resolution consenting to the improvement of Lewis street to Gregg street, was adopted.

An ordinance to proceed with the improvement of Lewis street was passed.

Another ordinance to proceed with the improvement of Eastern avenue, was adopted.

That Flushing.

It was announced that only one bid had been presented for flushing, one having been withdrawn, it was announced, because the bidder had failed to enclose a certified check necessary to make the bid legal.

Service-Safety Director Hillery stated that he believed another call for bids should be made, and that he was sure more bids would be in for the next time.

It is claimed the bid withdrawn

was from Tom Hillery and that the other was by Ralph Hess and O. D. Maddux.

It was announced that the bids were for a period of five years, and Service-Safety Director Hillery stated that he believed lower bids could be obtained the next time.

Sheets thought some of the money spent in calling for bids should be applied to buying water and flushing. It was finally decided to re-advertise. Sheets and Veall voting against the proposal.

A protest from Mae McLean Howat over the building of sidewalks along her lands on Leesburg avenue, was read. The communication challenged council's right to pave along certain lands of Mrs. Howatt. No action was taken on the matter.

The colored church was granted permission to tap the city sewer without charge. This was done on motion of Veall, and by unanimous vote.

Permission was granted the C. H. & D. railroad to erect a pen stock 125 feet south of the B. & O. crossing.

Council then adjourned.

FOUR 'LEGGERS RECEIVE FINES

Quartet of Men Recently Arrested for Unlawful Sale of Liquor Must Pay or Go to Work—Lawrence the Exception.

A somewhat unusual scene occurred in Mayor's court, late Monday afternoon, when four men, found guilty of the unlawful handling of liquor, were fined in less than ten minutes time.

The four men were Ernest Robinson, Harry Cann, Sam Hillhouse and Sam Lawrence. Robinson stood trial but Mayor Oster deemed the evidence sufficient to prove his guilt and fined him $100 and the costs. His attorney, F. A. Chaffin, made motion for a new trial.

Harry Cann, another colored man who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of furnishing "Gold Top," was fined $100 and the costs and given two days in which to raise the amount or go to the work house.

Sam Lawrence, the "go-between" or agent whose arrest for furnishing liquor resulted in the arrest of the other three, entered a plea of guilty to furnishing and was fined $100 and the costs, with the alternative of leaving the city never to return. The latter looked the best to Sam and he decided that two days would give him ample time to settle his business affairs and his himself hence to new climes.

Sam Hillhouse, white, and who is about 75 years of age, entered a plea of guilty and because of his age and poverty received half the fine meted out to his companions. He was given two days in which to raise the amount or go to Xenia, and said he believed he could obtain the amount.

NEWT. UNDERWOOD IS FOUND GUILTY

After a trial lasting several hours Tuesday, Newton Underwood, accused of bootlegging, was found guilty by Mayor Oster but sentence was reserved until Thursday afternoon at two o'clock when he will pass on a motion for a new trial, and if the motion is overruled, will pass sentence upon the man.

Underwood's arrest grows out of a case in which two colored men of Bloomingburg were accused of fighting, the evidence indicating that purchases of liquor had been made of Underwood.

Attorneys Nye Gregg and A. C. Patton represented the prosecution and Attorney T. S. Maddox the defendant.

In Social Circles

One of the most thoroughly delightful suppers among the many which have been served at the Y. M. C. A. was that tendered by the Kappa Sigma Bible class of Grace M. E. Sunday school in compliment to a popular member and assistant teacher, George Bryan, upon the eve of his departure for Middletown, Tuesday.

A delicious fried chicken supper was bountifully served at 6 o'clock, the table was prettily decked with gladioli and fern.

The hour of toasting which followed sparkled with fun and youthful exuberance, and was quite impromptu. Carl Lloyd rose to the occasion as toastmaster with an apt humor and initiative that delighted the boys.

Mr. Bryan's removal to a new home was the subject of ready toasts some of them witty and all expressive of the regret of the class in losing their genial teacher.

Toasts were made by Mr. Brownell, teacher of the class in co-operation with Mr. Bryan, Rev. Stone, Judge T. N. Craig, Carl Beck, Earl Saunders, Robert Craig, Harold Hays, Robert Merriweather and Robert McFadden, who presented Mr. Bryan with a pair of handsome cuff buttons as a parting gift from the class.

Mr. Bryan, who never lacks for a flow of language, expressed fervently his deep appreciation of both the supper and the gift.

The evening wound up in merry songs and general good time.

The recital given at the Methodist church of Bloomingburg Saturday evening by Miss Zinna Wilson, pianist, assisted by Miss Helen McCoy, reader, proved most attractive and was thoroughly appreciated by a large audience.

Miss Wilson executed splendidly her difficult numbers by Liszt, Chopin, MacDowell, Debussy and Wholenhaupt. The young pianist gives great promise in her chosen work.

Miss McCoy, always a charming reader, with excellent poise, gave several entertaining readings, calling forth prolonged applause.

Miss Wilson is an advanced pupil and Miss McCoy a graduate of the Stinson Conservatory.

Among the summer picnics, none could have been more cleverly planned than the surprise given for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster of Bloomingburg, whose twentieth wedding anniversary was remembered by a host of friends. It was planned by their daughter Mae, and niece, Hazel Andrews.

The guests assembled at high noon and when they begged for dinner, Mrs. Foster replied: "I'll just have lemon pies."

On the green lawn was spread the contents of bountiful baskets, and all enjoyed a real picnic.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster and children, Mae, Forest and Carl; Mrs. Elizabeth Foster; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Foster and children, Edna, Bernice and Florence; Mr. and Mrs. John Foster and children, Nina, Loren and Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Foster and son Lois Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Garringer and son Keith; Misses Hazel Andrews, Edith Foster and Walter Edwards, Robert Sorrell, Ray Miller and Charles Garringer.

At evening all departed, leaving hosts of presents and good wishes.

Misses Gretchen and Doris Willis are entertaining Misses Ruth Reid, Dorothy Rogers and Gladys Fenner for a few days' camp on the Willis farm above Bloomingburg. Mrs. Scott Hopkins is chaperoning the girls.

STREET LIGHTING BID IS REJECTED BY CITY SOLONS

New Plan of Lighting Will Be Submitted—"Heated" Session Is Held—Several Matters of Business Get Attention, But Another Call for Bids for Flushing Is Ordered.

Council had a heated session Monday night, and some of the visitors pronounced it the hottest session they had ever attended. However, it was the weather and not the anger of the solons that made it a heated session, and the solons expended much energy in wailing fans which had been sent up by the P. & D. Bank.

More time was granted the committee on the new street from Millikan avenue to Dayton avenue.

The bid of the Washington Gas & Electric Company for street lighting was rejected on the ground that it was several thousand dollars in excess of what the city can afford to pay for lights.

Upon the request of the manager of the company, council asked for new plans for a lighting system, and this is to be furnished by the next regular meeting.

By unanimous vote council rejected the proposed ordinance for employment of ten special police to be paid from costs collected in cases where arrests were made.

A resolution was adopted providing that the motor truck shall not be used for purposes other than fire fighting or fire drills. This will eliminate pumping out water mains or pools.

Howell Protests.

A resolution authorizing the transfer of $200 from the General to the Health fund, was adopted, Howell and Sheets voting against the proposal. Howell stated that he questioned the advisability of transferring such an amount, and that he protested against one man being paid by the Board of Health for treating contagious diseases; that the Board of Health had no right to take such action, and that it was time to get rid of pets in the matter.

Annual Budget.

The annual budget resolution was adopted, providing $4500 in the General fund; $8800 in Safety; $27,500 in Public Service; $1500 in Library; $800 in Health and $28,086 in the interest and sinking fund; a total of $71,186.

The semi-annual appropriation ordinance also was passed without a dissenting voice.

A resolution consenting to the improvement of Lewis street to Gregg street, was adopted.

An ordinance to proceed with the improvement of Lewis street was passed.

Another ordinance to proceed with the improvement of Eastern avenue, was adopted.

That Flushing.

It was announced that only one bid had been presented for flushing, one having been withdrawn, it was announced, because the bidder had failed to enclose a certified check necessary to make the bid legal.

Service-Safety Director Hillery stated that he believed another call for bids should be made, and that he was sure more bids would be in for the next time.

It is claimed the bid withdrawn

was from Tom Hillery and that the other was by Ralph Hess and O. D. Maddux.

It was announced that the bids were for a period of five years, and Service-Safety Director Hillery stated that he believed lower bids could be obtained the next time.

Sheets thought some of the money spent in calling for bids should be applied to buying water and flushing. It was finally decided to re-advertise, Sheets and Veail voting against the proposal.

A protest from Mae McLean Howatt over the building of sidewalks along her lands on Leesburg avenue, was read. The communication challenged council's right to pave along certain lands of Mrs. Howatt. No action was taken on the matter.

The colored church was granted permission to tap the city sewer without charge. This was done on motion of Veail, and by unanimous vote.

Permission was granted the C. H. & D. railroad to erect a pen stock 125 feet south of the B. & O. crossing.

Council then adjourned.

FOUR 'LEGGERS RECEIVE FINES

Quartet of Men Recently Arrested for Unlawful Sale of Liquor Must Pay or Go to Works—Lawrence the Exception.

A somewhat unusual scene occurred in Mayor's court, late Monday afternoon, when four men, found guilty of the unlawful handling of liquor, were fined in less than ten minutes time.

The four men were Ernest Robinson, Harry Cann, Sam Hillhouse and Sam Lawrence. Robinson stood trial but Mayor Oster deemed the evidence sufficient to prove his guilt and fined him $100 and the costs. His attorney, F. A. Chafin, made motion for a new trial.

Harry Cann, another colored man who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of furnishing "Gold Top," was fined $100 and the costs and given two days in which to raise the amount or go to the work house. Sam Lawrence, the "go-between" or agent whose arrest for furnishing liquor resulted in the arrest of the other three, entered a plea of guilty to furnishing and was fined $100 and the costs, with the alternative of leaving the city never to return. The latter looked the best to Sam and he decided that two days would give him ample time to settle his business affairs and hie himself hence to new climes.

Sam Hillhouse, white, and who is about 75 years of age, entered a plea of guilty and because of his age and poverty received half the fine meted out to his companions. He was given two days in which to raise the amount or go to Xenia, and said he believed he could obtain the amount.

In Social Circles

One of the most thoroughly delightful suppers among the many which have been served at the Y. M. C. A. was that tendered by the Kappa Sigma Bible class of Grace M. E. Sunday school in compliment to a popular member and assistant teacher, George Bryan, upon the eve of his departure for Middletown, Tuesday.

A delicious fried chicken supper was bountifully served at 6 o'clock, the table was prettily decked with gladioli and fern.

The hour of toasting which followed sparkled with fun and youthful exuberance, and was quite impromptu. Carl Lloyd rose to the occasion as toastmaster with an apt humor and initiative that delighted the boys.

Mr. Bryan's removal to a new home was the subject of ready toasts some of them witty and all expressive of the regret of the class in losing their genial teacher.

Toasts were made by Mr. Brownell, teacher of the class in co-operation with Mr. Bryan, Rev. Stone, Judge T. N. Craig, Carl Beck, Earl Saunders, Robert Craig, Harold Hays, Robert Merriweather and Robert McFadden; who presented Mr. Bryan with a pair of handsome cuff buttons as a parting gift from the class.

Mr. Bryan, who never lacks for a flow of language, expressed fervently his deep appreciation of both the supper and the gift.

The evening wound up in merry songs and general good time.

The recital given at the Methodist church of Bloomingburg Saturday evening by Miss Zinna Wilson, pianist, assisted by Miss Helen McCoy, reader, proved most attractive and was thoroughly appreciated by a large audience.

Miss Wilson executed splendidly her difficult numbers by Liszt, Chopin, MacDowell, Debussy and Wholenhaupt. The young pianist gives great promise in her chosen work. Miss McCoy, always a charming reader, with excellent poise, gave several entertaining readings, calling forth prolonged applause.

Miss Wilson is an advanced pupil and Miss McCoy a graduate of the Stinson Conservatory.

Among the summer picnics, none could have been more cleverly planned than the surprise given for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster of Bloomingburg, whose twentieth wedding anniversary was remembered by a host of friends. It was planned by their daughter Mae, and niece, Hazel Andrews.

The guests assembled at high noon and when they begged for dinner, Mrs. Foster replied: "I'll just have lemon pies."

On the green lawn was spread the contents of bountiful baskets,

and all enjoyed a real picnic.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster and children, Mae, Forest and Carl; Mrs. Elizabeth Foster; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Foster and children, Edna, Bernice and Florence; Mr. and Mrs. John Foster and children, Nina, Loren and Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Foster and son Lois Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Garringer and son Keith; Misses Hazel Andrews, Edith Foster and Walter Edwards, Robert Sorrell, Ray Miller and Charles Garringer.

At evening all departed, leaving hosts of presents and good wishes.

Misses Gretchen and Doris Willis are entertaining Misses Ruth Reid, Dorothy Rogers and Gladys Fenner for a few days' camp on the Willis farm above Bloomingburg. Mrs. Scott Hopkins is chaperoning the girls.

SEVERE CRITICISM FOR CAMP

Attacks the Food and Sanitary Conditions There.

MEN'S HEALTH MENACED

Physical Examination For the Third Regiment Completed, 300 Men Being Rejected—No Word Received as to When the Troops Will Start Southward—Governor Willis Asks For Sleeping Cars.

Columbus, July 18.—The health of the guardsmen encamped at Camp Willis is menaced both by their food and the sanitary conditions there, in the opinion of Colonel George K. Hunter, inspector general of the central department, who inspected the camp.

He found reports that moldy bread has been served true. "I believe in dealing severely with the men in the commissary department who allow men to be fed with such bread," Colonel Hunter declared. It was evident from the way the colonel questioned cooks that he had heard that the food served at the camp had not been what it should. He was told by General McMaken, however, that care is now being taken to give the men the best of everything.

Colonel Hunter was outspoken in his criticism of sanitary buildings at the camp. These, he said, should be remodeled, or epidemic was possible. General Speaks told him that the structures had been built according to blue prints issued by the war department at Washington.

The inspector's criticism also included shower bath houses and mess halls. He objected to the drainage of the former, and that flies find openings to get inside the mess halls.

Colonel Hunter put to rest rumors that the site might be made a permanent camp by declaring that it is not suitable for that purpose in that it is too close to a large city. "Camp Douglas, in Wisconsin, with its rolling grounds, is better suited for a permanent camp than any of the eleven state camps I have visited," he said.

Colonel Hunter expects to complete his work here by evening. He indicated that his report to General Barry of Chicago will be "strictly confidential."

Major Mearns said that he had received no word from either Washington or Chicago as to when Ohio troops would start southward.

Several thousand pairs of underwear have arrived at camp, but 8,000 pairs of army shoes, said to have been shipped, did not arrive.

Ohio troops will not be moved to the border in ordinary day coaches if some of the officers at camp and Governor Willis can help it. Governor Willis, by wire, asked Secretary of War Baker to furnish tourist sleeping cars. He also asked Senators Pomerene and Harding and all the Ohio congressmen to use their influence in this direction.

The prevailing belief at the camp is that Ohio troops will either be sent to the border for at least a year's service there or that they will be held in camp here several weeks longer and then allowed to go home, subject, of course, to recall in case of emergency. Physical examinations for the Third regiment, commanded by Colonel Hilder of Dayton, have been completed. He lost 308 of his 1,320 enlisted men, an unusually good showing.

NOW A LAW

(By American Press)

Washington, July 18.—President Wilson signed the rural credits bill. It provides establishment of a system of land mortgage banks to handle long time loans to farmers. On invitation of the president, many interested in the initiation of the rural credits system were present at its signing. Speaking before he signed the bill, the president said in part:

"The farmers, it seems to me, have occupied hitherto a singular position of disadvantage. They have not had the same freedom to get credit on their real assets that others have had who were in manufacturing and commercial enterprises. And while they sustained our life, they did not, in the same degree with some others, share in the benefits of that life. Therefore, this bill, along with the very liberal provisions of the federal reserve act, puts them on an equality with all others who have genuine assets and makes the great credit of the country available to all."

British Advance Against Enemy Lines; Von Einem Holds High Command in West

General Von Einem.

Map of British Advances.

In the greatest single day's gain made by the British since their offensive began on July 1 they captured three villages on their way toward Bapaume, the important railroad center which is believed to be the present British objective. The map shows the British line as it was before July 1, when the advance began, and the gain made by the strong one day's advance. The Germans have consistently attempted since the war began to conceal the names of the generals who command in various sectors of the western front, but it is known that General von Einem, whose picture is shown, has a very high command, perhaps the highest, in opposing the French and British offensive. He is a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war of 1870-71.

BIG GAINS MADE BY THE ALLIES

Successful on Both Western and Eastern Fronts.

VON LINSINGEN RETREATS

His Army Operating Southwest of Lutsik Is Compelled to Retire Behind the Lipa River—British Capture German Second Line of Positions On the Somme—Kuropatkin Assailing Von Hindenburg's Lines.

London, July 18.—The allies have made further important gains on both the eastern and western front.

A dispatch of General Sir Douglas Haig shows that the steady pressure of the British arms is forcing an ever-deepening salient into the German lines.

The British have improved their position along almost the whole of their line of the battle front, capturing by assault 1,500 yards of German second line positions north of the Bazentin-le-Petit wood, a strong German position at the Waterlot farm, between Longueval and Guillemont, besides completing the capture of the whole of the village of Ovillers-la-Boisselle. These gains bring the British almost to the crest of the Albert Plateau, where stretches the German third line.

The news from the eastern front was equally important. The Russian commander, General Kuropatkin, has launched an offensive against Field Marshal Von Hindenburg on the Dvina river, and General Von Linsingen's troops southwest of Lutsik have been compelled to retire behind the Lipa river, while in the course of recent fighting in Volhynia the Russians captured an additional 13,000 prisoners and 30 guns. General Von Linsingen's retirement, according to the Petrograd military critics, represents a great Russian tactical success. It was preceded by heavy fighting in which the Russians smashed the Teuton front on a width of a mile and penetrated several miles into their positions.

The war now is costing Great Britain $30,000,000 daily. The nation is taking nothing for granted, but is fully prepared to acquiesce in the advice of its leading ministers, like Foreign Secretary Grey and Chancellor of the Exchequer McKenna, who are publicly exhorting the nation to the need of patience. Mr. McKenna told the house of commons nobody could estimate what the nation's war expenditure might be a month ahead. He also intimated that it would become necessary this week to ask parliament for fresh borrowing powers.

GOOD PROPOSAL

(By American Press)

Washington, July 18.—Discussion of the naval building program in the senate brought out indications that the committee recommendation of constructions of sixteen capital warships within three years, eight of them in 1917, probably would be approved without material amendment.

Such opposition as developed came from both sides of the chamber. Senators Thomas and Vardaman (Democrats) and Senators Works and Norris (Republicans) leading the attack on the building program. Both Democratic and Republican leaders defended it, however, and an amendment by Senator Norris to delay construction of any of the sixteen capital ships until after the close of the European war and after failure of efforts to create an international peace tribunal, was tabled, 45 to 11.

Declaring that the United States has not a friend among the nations, Senator Lewis pleaded that the people be told the frank truth about foreign nations, so they would demand an adequate navy.

FIFTEEN LIVES STORM'S TOLL

Thirteen Persons Dead and Ten Missing the Flood's Toll.

Raleigh, N. C., July 18.—Thirteen persons dead, at least ten missing and property damage estimated at around $15,000,000 is the known toll of flood in five southern states.

Although the waters are receding in nearly all districts, railroad and telegraph communication still are demoralized and reports from towns and villages now isolated may increase both the number of deaths and the property loss.

North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and West Virginia all suffered heavy damage from the overflowing streams, swollen by torrential rains which followed last week's hurricane as it swept inland from the coast, but the heaviest loss was in North Carolina, where eleven of the twelve deaths are reported and where two-thirds of the material damage was done. The list of known dead follows: Asheville, two; Biltmore, four; Alexander county, three; Marshall, three; Radford, Va., one. All but one of the dead were white. In addition, ten Southern railway construction men, who went down with the Southern bridge near Charlotte, are missing.

(By American Press)

Berlin, July 18.—According to official reports issued at Petrograd, the Russian losses since the beginning of the present offensive until July 1 total more than 262,000. The killed include 14,900 officers, among them 11 generals and 29 regimental commanders, and 248,000 men.

CLOSE GUARD ON U-BOAT

Deutschland May Leave Baltimore In Day or Two.

Baltimore, July 18.—Officials of the Eastern Forwarding company would give no information concerning the sailing of the German submarine Deutschland or as to how far the stowing of the cargo had progressed. It is known, however, that a quantity of nickel, which will do duty as ballast as well as form part of the cargo, has been taken aboard. Most of the rubber that is to be taken to Germany is thought to be in the vessel's hold. The painting of the Deutschland's hull so that it harmonizes with the waters of the Atlantic, even to the whitecaps, has been completed.

The tug Timmons and the launch Efec are patrolling the river in the vicinity of the submarine. Vessels that approach too near the pier are warned off.

Ashore is a constant patrol of policemen and special watchmen of the Eastern Forwarding company, who keep all persons at a distance of several hundred yards from the submarine and permit no loitering. It is believed that the Deutschland will be ready to sail tonight.

GETTING READY

(By American Press)

Washington, July 18.—President Wilson decided to change the tentative plan for holding the notification ceremonies Aug. 5, because he desired to postpone them until after the adjournment of congress.

Chairman McCormick discussed the entire political situation with the president. He said that later this week he would name a man to take charge of the headquarters at Chicago and would complete organization of a labor bureau. The president and Mr. McCormick talked over particularly the efforts that will be made to secure the votes of former members of the Progressive party.

How much active campaigning will be done by Mr. Wilson will not be decided until congress adjourns, and will depend largely on the status of the Mexican situation and other pending public questions.

The president already has begun drafting his speech of acceptance, but will not complete it until after former Justice Hughes delivers his address to the Republican notification committee on July 31.

ATHLETE TAKEN

Bridgeport, Conn., July 18.—The plague that usually claims weak babies killed husky Frank McCormick, in 1906 a center on Villa Nova's football team and picked on the All-American eleven that season. Doctors diagnosed his case as infantile paralysis. He was thirty-seven years old.

GEN. J. WARREN KEIFER

Of Springfield, Ohio,

Candidate for Nomination for Representative in Congress from the Seventh District

Primaries Tuesday, Aug. 8

With the world-war cloud hanging over us, and with the perplexities of peace in the immediate foreground, in GEN. J. WARREN KEIFER fate seems to have fashioned a man to meet the emergency.

A soldier of two wars; a Congressman with a brilliant record and Speaker of the House for two years; a banker and a successful business man; a citizen of highest repute; a lawyer of admitted ability, now actively and vigorously engaged in the practice of his profession.

A man of INTERNATIONAL acquaintance and prestige.

The Seventh District would do Ohio injustice not to lend the services of such a man to the Nation at this time.

A BORDER RAID IS FEARED

Villistas Elude General Trevino's Troops.

MAKING THEIR WAY NORTH

Mexican Troops Thrown Out to Intercept the Bandits and American Authorities Warned—Main Villa Band Reported Surrounded in Rio Florida District—Hearst Ranch at Babicora Not Confiscated.

El Paso, Tex., July 18.—Groups of Villa followers have eluded the cordon of government troops which surrounded them in the Rio Florida bottoms and have reassembled at Tanajas and Las Escobas, on the road to Ojina, and are making their way north with the object of making another raid on the American border, according to advices received by General Trevino, at Chihuahua City.

The outlaws skirted Chihuahua City by traveling in small groups to the little settlements northeast of the city.

General Trevino immediately ordered the commanders of the garrisons at Ojina and Piedras Negras to throw troops out in an attempt to intercept the bandits, whose numbers were estimated at about 200. He pointed out, however, that the nature of the terrain is such that some of the outlaws might evade the government troops and suggested that it would be well for military authorities on the American side of the frontier to be especially vigilant.

"With the advent of the rainy season," he said, "the abundant water supply makes it easy for small bands to deviate from beaten roads and old water holes. However, the Mexican troops will do everything they can to prevent the bandits reaching the American border."

Francisco L. Trevino, civil governor of Chihuahua, announced that he had investigated the reported seizure of the Hearst ranch at Babicora and had determined, he said, that the property was not confiscated, but that the cattle were merely detained to prevent the possibility of their being moved across the border without paying duty.

Reports from General Luis Herrera at Parral indicated quiet in the district. General Ramos has not yet engaged the main Villa band, which is surrounded in Rio Florida district, he said, but is pressing them closely.

AMERICAN SOLDIER SHOOT A MEXICAN

(By American Press)

Douglas, Ariz., July 18.—Private R. Tucker, Eleventh United States Infantry, shot and probably fatally wounded Antonio Rodriguez, a Mexican musician, while the Mexican and a companion were making their way toward the international boundary. Tucker asserted that one of the men carried a rifle and that both refused to halt at his order.

DYNAMITE USED TO FIGHT SHARKS; BOY TELLS OF SEEING MONSTER

How does it feel to be hit by a shark? Little Albert O'Hara, eleven years old, of Matawan, N. J., answers that question for a reporter. Albert was in the water close to young Lester Stillwell when he was dragged under and killed by the shark. "Something hit my right leg and knocked me over against the ladder," Albert said. "It felt hard and slippery. I looked down in the water and saw the shark's tail. I couldn't see the rest of him. Then I heard Lester Stillwell scream, and when we looked around he was gone." Henry Schenk, fifteen; Charles Van Brunt, thirteen; Johnson Cartain, fourteen and Reggie Hulsart, fifteen, who had just come out of the water when the shark struck Stillwell, all declared they had seen the shark, and it was at least ten feet long.

UNSETTLED

(By American Press)

Washington, July 18.—No agreement has been reached as yet in the preliminary conferences between Acting Secretary Polk of the state department and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate, for settlement of border difficulties. Mr. Polk authorized this statement when his attention was directed to the announcement issued in Mexico City that an understanding had been arrived at by which the issues between the two governments would be adjusted. He added, however, his routine reply to all inquiries as to the conferences—that satisfactory progress was being made.

A joint commission composed of diplomatic, military and commercial representatives of each government is expected to be the plan adopted, the preliminary conference also to establish the specific questions to be debated by the commission.

All other countries have been represented on the list for some time.

PASTOR ADVISES HOW TO CHOOSE A WIFE

Helpmate, Good Housekeeper and Not Mere Toy Essential to Future Happiness.

Milwaukee, Wis.—A helpmate. A good housekeeper. A woman of sweet temper. And—none other than a good woman.

These are essential when selecting a helpmate, according to the Rev. W. O. Wallace, who recently preached on "Choosing a Wife" in Bethany Wesleyan church.

"Recognize the folly of choosing a mere toy wife," he said—"I mean one that is too fine, too ethereal. She should be one who can take her place in life, sharing its burdens and responsibilities and still keep growing more bountiful in character."

"Also look for a woman of sweet temper. Nothing can take the place of love in the home; nothing else can supply its lack."

"Again, let me say, choose a helpmate who is in thorough sympathy with you in all of life's work. One you can counsel with assurance that she sympathizes with you in everything. Such a one will rejoice with you when you are prosperous and will not accuse and find fault with you when adversity strikes you down. To fall him then or to chide only adds a hundredfold burden to heart and shoulders already high crushed."

"No more is the man of our times excused who makes a lifelong alliance with any one who, because of her habits, vanity or moral degeneracy, has the marks of the Philistine upon her life. There is no sufficient excuse for a man to wreck his prospects for life by tying himself to such debased womanhood."

"There is no other subject, next to their choice of redemption in Christ, in which young people need wise, loving counsel more than in choosing for marriage. There is a grave possibility of making a mistake, for getting married does not insure happiness, for, having made a mistake and taken the marriage vows, there is no honorable release."

FINED FOR CHOPPING TREES.

Penalty For Cutting Down Historic Oaks is $25 Each.

Beloit, Kan.—At a jury trial in this city recently G. F. Abrahams, proprietor of the Waconda Springs sanitarium, and Harry Lashley of Kirwin were each fined $25 for cutting down some of the historic oak trees at Lincoln Park, near Cawker City.

Mr. Abrahams bought a large building in the park owned by the State W. C. T. U. association and cut down some trees to make a path to the highway for the building. The building was taken to Waconda Springs. The real trouble seemed to be that the Lincoln Park Religious and Educational association, the plaintiff in the case, did not want the W. C. T. U. to sell the building.

HUSBAND TOO ATTRACTIVE.

In Order to Mar His Beauty Wife Burns Out Both Eyes.

Sherman, Tex.—Because she regarded her husband as too attractive to other women Mrs. J. P. Gathright poured a quart of concentrated lye on his face and body while he slept, burning out both eyes and badly burning and disfiguring his body.

"I did not want to kill him, but I did want to put his eyes out and spoil his handsome face so he would not be attractive to other women," she told the sheriff.

Gathright is forty-five years of age. He owned a restaurant. It is said he will recover, but will be blind. He requested that his wife be not arrested.

PAINTS HUGE FLAG ON MAMMOTH SILO

G. W. Smidley, residing near New Holland, is really a patriotic farmer, as every passer-by may readily know with a glimpse at the big silo on the Smidley premises, where a huge American flag is painted on the silo.

The flag extends from top to bottom of the big silo, with the blue field and stars at the top and broad red and white stripes extending the full length of the silo.

The silo is probably the only one in the United States which is so patriotically decorated.

HOT? WELL, RATHER! FIGURES WON'T LIE

For continuous hotness the past few days probably hold the record during recent years as at no time since a week ago Monday has the temperature dropped below 65, very few times below 70, and has reached up into the nineties in a number of instances, while the mercury exposed to the sun bounded beyond so high that it was melting to look at.

Last week was a scorcher, and according to the self-registering thermometer at Gossard's corner, the highest temperature recorded each day was: Monday, 88; Tuesday, 89; Wednesday, 85; Thursday, 91; Friday, 92; Saturday, 90; Sunday, 88.

Monday of this week the mercury started out by recording 89 degrees at 10 a. m.; 91 at 5:00 p. m.; 73 Monday midnight. This dropped to 68 at six o'clock Tuesday morning and by 11:30 a. m. had reached 85 and was still climbing. At 3 p. m. it registered 92.

Ben Jamison brought about the deal, which involves upward of $100,000 worth of property.

TEN MEN FOUND WITH BIG SEINE

That arrests will grow out of a visit of Deputy State Game Warden, Frank Hard and Deputy Sheriff Edwin Jones, to a point near Beuna Vista, on Sugar Creek, a couple of days ago, is indicated by the capture of a 93 foot seine which the two officers removed from the creek, and the fact that the names of ten men alleged to have had the seine, were obtained.

The seine is at the office of Justice T. N. Craig, and the Fish and Game Association is said to be back of the cases about to be launched.
